About the Institution

St. Joseph's College of Commerce is part of the Society of Jesus, a Catholic Religious Order founded by St. Ignatius of Loyola in 1540. The Jesuits have a rich history of promoting education worldwide. The Department of Commerce was established in 1949 within St. Joseph's College, which itself was established in 1882. Later on, the Department of Commerce became an independent college known as St. Joseph's College of Commerce (SJCC). In 1972, SJCC relocated to its current campus at 163 Brigade Road in Bangalore. St. Joseph's College of Commerce is registered under the Bangalore Jesuit Educational Society. While it is a religious minority institution primarily focused on educating Catholic youth, we warmly welcome students of all backgrounds, without any distinction of caste or creed. By the admission policy of Management, St. Joseph's College of Commerce gives special preference to socio-economically marginalized students.

College Motto

"Fide et Labore," meaning "Faith and Toil." Faith is the commitment to God and fellow beings while Toil represents hard work.

Vision of the College

To create a just, secular and democratic society specially in the service of the poor, the oppressed and the marginalized

The Mission Statement

"St. Joseph's College of Commerce seeks to be a place where academic excellence goes with the cultivation of virtue, and where a community is formed which sustains men and women in their education and their conviction that life is only lived well when it is lived generously in the service of others".

Why St. Joseph's College of Commerce?

The College aims at the holistic formation of students, helping them to become women and men imbued with a spirit of excellence and an abiding concern for others. We believe in the three intertwined goals, of Academic Excellence, Character Formation and Social Concern that shape individuals to become “women and men” for the larger society.

Academic Excellence

St. Joseph's College of Commerce emphasizes academic excellence, aesthetic sensibilities, and ethical engagement. The faculty guides and empowers students to cultivate critical thinking, imaginative powers, and clear expression. The supportive environment inspires students to pursue excellence, unlocking their full potential and fostering a love for lifelong learning.

Character Formation

St. Joseph's College of Commerce considers spiritual and moral values as essential for lifelong development. The institution fosters character formation and offers curricular and extracurricular activities that encourage students to deepen their understanding of their religion while also respecting other faiths.

Social Concern

St. Joseph's College of Commerce is committed to serving others and follows Jesuit principles. The college engages in outreach programs to support socially and economically deprived individuals and communities, promoting equality and opportunities for all. Different associations coordinate educational programs, skill-building workshops, and awareness campaigns.

Department Associations

BCOM NEWSROOM

The association is involved in publishing monthly newsletters called "BCom Cognizance" on topics that aren't usually written about and creates general awareness among students on the same.

Objective: To raise awareness among students on topics not commonly known to students.
