Academic year 2018-2019

Threshold limit for the attainment of Programme outcomes and Programme Specific Outcome

Computation and Attainment of Programme Outcome & Programme Specific Outcome:

Threshold limit for the attainment of Programme outcomes and Programme Specific Outcome is set as follows

The level of attainment of the all Programme Outcome (LAAPO) is deemed to be the "Highest" when the 25% of the class score an average of 75% of marks of all three summative assessments (CIA + MTT + ESE).

The level of attainment of the all Programme Outcome (LAAPO) is deemed to be the "Higher" when the 70% of the class scored an average of 60% of marks of all three summative assessments (CIA + MTT + ESE).

The level of attainment of the all Programme Outcome (LAAPO) is deemed to be the "High" when the 80% of the class scored an average of 40% of marks of all three summative assessments (CIA + MTT + ESE).

The level of Attainment of Programme Outcome shows as either "1" or "2" or "3" against each of the Programme Outcomes of the respective Course.

if the score of a Programme Outcome is above "1" the respective Course Outcome is attained at high level of attainment.

if the score of a Programme Outcome is above "2" the respective Course Outcome is attained at higher level of attainment.

if the score of a Programme Outcome is "3" the respective Course Outcome is attained at highest level of attainment.

*Note:

If the score of a Programme outcome is below "1" the respective Programme outcome has not been attained.
