A Brief History of the College

St. Joseph's College of Commerce was formerly a part of St. Joseph's College which was established in the year 1882 as an educational initiative by the French Foreign Mission Fathers for the purpose of imparting higher education. In 1937, the management of the college was handed over to the Jesuits, a worldwide Catholic religious order with a special focus on education. The Jesuits also run other premier institutions in India like Loyola College, Chennai, St. Xavier's College, Calcutta and St. Xavier's College, Mumbai. The Department of Commerce was established in the parent college in 1949. In 1972 this department became an independent college under the name of St. Joseph's College of Commerce. [ANNUAL REPORT]

Principal's Foreword

Distinguished Chief Guest of this evening Mrs. B.C. Vaz, retired and most respected professor of SJCC, Principals from our Jesuit institutions, Rev. Fathers, Rev. Sisters, respected Members of the Staff, Parents, the president of the OSA- Ms. Kavitha Muthappa, all the OSA members, Guests and my dear Students – good evening and a warm welcome to the 49th College Day Celebrations of St Joseph's College of Commerce.

Amidst this raging pandemic which has gripped the entire world, India went through a sea of social and political change. The country witnessed a tremendous response from the ordinary people who came out in huge numbers protesting against a range of injustices – from the sexual assaults on women to the farm laws which were perceived as unjust towards the farmers. Ordinary people have shown their commitment towards democracy and the Indian constitution by demanding justice in the most peaceful manner. We, as a society, need to adopt the great ideals of great leaders like Dr. B R Ambedkar and Mahatma Gandhi, who have shown us the path to peace, harmony and justice. The transformation that this society badly needs can only come through a constitutional and peaceful struggle and the youth of the society need to provide us with a leadership not just of thought, but also of action. There is a need for people with conscience, people committed to the ideals of the constitution and people who value humanity above all else, to come together and protect basic human dignity and freedom from the grips of tyrannical forces.

Such tyrannical forces can only be defeated through proper education - an education that cultivates the mind to be honest, compassionate, empathetic and also to be courageous, ambitious and strong. Educational institutions have a responsibility to the society that doesn't just end by producing graduates. We need to prepare students to actively engage in the public sphere and play a constructive role in transforming the country into a just, equal and peaceful society. St. Joseph's College of Commerce has always been and continues to be a space where new ideas are born, where students discover their potential and where a sense of responsibility is instilled.

During this year of the pandemic the institution recalibrated itself to meet the new challenges of the digital and the online world. The institution reoriented its approach to curriculum, teaching, learning, evaluation, student support, student activities and outreach programme in order to ensure that the students continue to get the best possible holistic education. Meticulous planning and preparation went along with timely support, guidance and orientation in preparing the staff and the students to engage in online teaching and learning.

The Annual Report 2020-2021 is an attempt to present to you all the activities of the institution in the aforementioned academic year. As you peruse this report, you will experience the commitment of the Institution in imparting holistic education in its true sense. The Annual Report of the college is not only a record of our journey of this academic year but it also captures the dreams and aspirations of the years to come. Our Patron St. Joseph is always a source of inspiration for us to strive hard and God has bestowed His grace on each one of us abundantly, so that we may continue this journey of excellence.

God bless all of us.

Principal

The current pandemic affected every aspect of our lives. Everyday life was thrown out of gear and a large number of people found themselves in the middle of an economic crisis. At this juncture it was imperative on educational institutions to respond to the situation in the best way possible by utilizing its resources in an efficient way. From reaching out to the most vulnerable communities to ensuring academic, financial and emotional support to its own students and staff, SJCC stepped up to the challenge by preparing an action plan and executing it with utmost effectiveness. The holistic development of students was given prime importance at all times.

The staff and students of SJCC contributed Rs. 15, 04, 996 towards the supply of essential kits. Several other initiatives like data recharge for government school students, assistance towards Covid-19 vaccine rollout and webinars and guest lectures to understand the effects of the pandemic and to respond accordingly, were conducted.

Bembala – The Outreach Programme

Bembala is a Community Outreach Programme designed for students of all institutions under BJES. Every year students take part in a number of outreach activities that take them beyond the classrooms and connect them with the issues and problems of the most marginalized people. Activities like rural exposure camp, eco awareness drives, traffic discipline awareness campaigns, clean-up drives, teaching government school children and participation in public rallies are a regular feature of the programme. Due to the pandemic the Bembala programme was restructured and the activities were moved online. Outreach programme in the online mode included monetary help for government school children, online teaching, citizen journalism, webinars and online discussions.

Staff Training & Empowerment

The college believes that learning is a continuous, evolutionary process. In order to enable and facilitate our faculty to enrich and enhance their knowledge and skills, the College is committed to organizing Staff Enrichment Programs. During the year, 16 Faculty Development Programs and 12 Train-the-Trainer Programs and workshops were conducted. The Institution also hosted a six-day joint FEP in collaboration with Mount Carmel College, Bengaluru on Artificial Intelligence & Business.

Online Teaching-learning

Due to the pandemic, education shifted to the online mode rapidly and one could see a distinctive rise in e-learning. As learning began taking shape in the digital world, it became imperative for the college to adopt the mode of online classes at the earliest. A committee was constituted to select the best and most suitable platform for online teaching-learning. Teachers and students were introduced to the online mode of teaching and learning in a gradual and comfortable manner.

Well-thought-out plans and procedures were followed to ensure that the online experience was less disruptive and more creative to the students and teachers. Tracking individual student progress, addressing the needs of slow and fast learners, providing individual attention and need-based assistance continued to be the top priorities of the institution. Additionally, institutional support was provided to students who did not have the necessary means to attend online classes.

Online teaching came with its own challenges and the institution responded to it by adopting new pedagogic practices that are well suited to the online mode. Techniques like Collaborative Teaching and Learning, Instant Student Engagement, Online Assignment, Online Quizzes, Online Group Discussion, Fully Online Flipped Classes, Online Digital Whiteboard were utilized. MOOCs were used extensively to compensate for in-campus classes and regular internships.

Evaluation

In view of the outbreak of COVID-19, the Institution took into consideration the concerns of the student community, especially the passing out batches and conducted Online End Semester Examination exclusively for the registered candidates on a non-mandatory basis. The Examination Centre also collected the consent form from all those who registered for the online examination. The Examination Centre conducted training sessions on online examination for students and teachers. Mock examinations were organized to familiarize students with the digital platform. The question papers for Theory and Practical subjects were designed differently, keeping in mind the limitations of the online mode.

The Exam Centre also designed innovative assessment methods for the UG and PG students keeping in mind the varied academic capabilities of the students and the online mode of assessment. The respective course instructor selected the most feasible assessment method. A detailed guideline regarding the Online Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) patterns was prepared and shared with the faculty members.

Online Video Lectures and MOOCs

The institution had initiated the practice of developing online courses, a few years ago. These courses are designed by integrating video lectures delivered by our own faculty members, reading materials, daily and weekly tasks, examination and evaluation, all, in a single online platform. These online courses were extensively used by the students in this year of the pandemic. The institution also registered with Coursera for the 'Coursera for Campus' programme, through which courses offered by Coursera have been made available to all the students of the Institution free of cost with the option to obtain course completion certificates. 210 UG students and 89 PG students have successfully completed several interdisciplinary courses through this MOOC platform, this academic year.

e-Library Facilities

The college library plays a vital role in the academic excellence of every student. As the pandemic restricted the movement of students, the institution made the library facilities accessible to students through the online mode. Research scholars and students could access the academic resources of the library in the digital mode, remotely. Students had access to Johan Brown Digital Library, INFLIBNET - N-LIST, Capitaline Database, EPWRF India Time Series, EBSCO Business Source Elite, Institutional Repository, CMIE-ProwessIQ, and DELNET, among many others. The library committee also conducted webinars to create awareness and effective usage of library digital resources. The webinars also had exclusive hands-on training sessions from the services providers as well.

Remedial Classes

The remedial programme at SJCC is the backbone of academic excellence. In this programme students who require academic support are identified and offered one-on-one assistance by advanced learners. In 22 courses, 114 students tutored 845 students for the odd semester. Through these classes that spanned for over 220 hours, the student tutees successfully attempted the End Semester Examinations and 98.11% of them cleared the exams.

Counselling Support

The counselling team of SJCC has done a tremendous job in providing mental health support to students and staff during this pandemic year. The counselling centre proactively responded to student concerns by making themselves available 24/7 through the online mode. They conducted several sessions on mental well-being and strategies to cope up with the stress and anxiety. The counselling centre played an instrumental role in identifying students who deserved institutional benefits like fee concessions and scholarships.

Video lecture series

The college took many initiatives to help its staff and students adapt to the challenging changes that the COVID 19 pandemic had imposed. One such initiative was the posting of short video clips prepared by the Karnataka Jesuit Province with psycho-spiritual themes. These videos helped boost everyone's morale. Apart from these the college prepared videos on issues like the effect of the pandemic and the subsequent lockdown on migrant workers and the lifestyle changes due to the pandemic by inviting experts from the social sector organizations.

Scholarships & Freeships

The Institution believes that life is lived well when it is lived generously in the service of others. We believe that lack of financial resources should not hinder one's pursuit of education and this year, financial assistance was extended in the form of Management Scholarships amounting to Rs. 90,64,665, benefitting 704 students. The Alumni of the college have contributed Rs. 11,86,000 towards student scholarships benefitting 119 students. The institution facilitated Govt. scholarships to the students to the tune of Rs. 3,35,247, benefitting 16 students.

Student Activities

The college did not allow the pandemic to deter the enthusiasm of the students as they switched to conducting events in the online mode. Student Council elections were held in the online mode and the elected council performed its duties by stepping up to the challenge that the pandemic threw at us. The student council and the student associations and clubs held numerous activities to keep the students engaged and also to respond to societal needs. In this regard, several webinars, guest lectures, competitions and awareness drives on human rights issues were conducted by the students. The talented students of SJCC, despite the pandemic, participated in intercollegiate fests and other events and won laurels for the institution.

Online Sports & Games

Despite all limitations the sports department at SJCC has managed to keep the sporting spirit alive among students. Perhaps the first and only college to host online sporting events, the sports department has ensured that students pay attention to their physical and mental well-being.

Covid-19 Task Force

As per the directions of the Central, State Government and UGC, the college adopted a set of Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) with comprehensive preventive measures to prevent and deal with COVID-19 pandemic, by setting up the policy and procedural guidelines for students, staff members and visitors in accordance. A Covid-19 Task Force was set up to frame the SOPs. The staff and students produced a negative Covid-19 report before the day of joining. Everyone was mandated to wear a mask on campus and the staff and students were requested to bring their own food and drinking water. Physical distance between people was maintained and students were slowly introduced to the conduction of offline classes, in phases. The college also did not allow visitors on the campus.

Continuous Monitoring and Adaptability

A continuous monitoring system was set up to ensure hygiene and safety in the entire campus. With regard to the academic progress, the college adopted a policy of responding to the situation as it develops and to take decisions based on the prevailing circumstances. Adaptability was the key to tackling the problems with respect to the pandemic and its effects on educational institutions. Overall, the college was committed to the safety and welfare of all its students and staff.

NAAC Assessment and Accreditation (IV Cycle)

NAAC Assessment and Accreditation (IV Cycle)

The Institution had applied for the fourth cycle of accreditation this academic year. Preparation for accreditation was a very fruitful exercise. The Revised Accreditation framework followed by NAAC provided the institution with an opportunity to strengthen existing systems and introduce new processes.

The first step towards the NAAC assessment and accreditation is the preparation of the Self-Study Report (SSR) which started in 2017. The SSR seeks information from college on seven different parameters, covering all aspects of the functioning of the college. All members of the staff contributed selflessly towards the preparation of the report. The next step was the submission of Institutional Information for Quality Assurance (IIQA) report which happened on 12 December, 2019 followed by the submission of the Self-Study Report on 14 January, 2020. The submitted SSR was evaluated for accuracy and Data Validation and Verification (DVV) queries were sent on 5 February, 2020. The DVV process was successfully completed on 19 February, 2020.

NAAC constitutes a peer team to visit the campus and assess the institution based on the submitted SSR. The Peer Team visit was postponed due to the onset of the pandemic and was rescheduled to 18th and 19th of February, 2021. The team visited the campus on the mentioned dates and evaluated the institution according to the set criteria. The final grade was declared on February 23, 2021. The institution has been awarded 3.57 CGPA and 'A++' grade by NAAC. SJCC is also the first college in the state to acquire this grade. This accreditation is valid for a period of 7 years till 23/2/2028.

It has worked together in collaboration with NGOs to clean the lakes in Bengaluru. Throughout the year, the club organizes diverse eco-friendly activities and creates awareness among students about the need to adopt eco-friendly practices.

Solar Panel Generation Update

The college has installed 95kVa Roof-top Solar Power Generation plant. It generates four units of power and helps the institution in meeting the complete power requirements of the college. With this project which has become fully functional since March, 2020, the institution manages to generate enough electricity and has reduced its dependency on external power supply to zero. Apart from this, the existing solar panels with 3.2 kWh generates the power required to meet the institution's other requirements.

Renovation of the Rain Water Harvesting

A new filter system was installed to strengthen the existing rainwater harvesting system. It supports the existing college rain water harvesting system and the purification process of water collected through collection points. The clean rainwater, after the filtering process is collected in the open well and bore-well of the college. The water collected, apart from recharging the bore-well is utilized for cleaning and gardening purpose in the institution.

Renovation of Food Waste Convertor

The food-waste convertor system is installed in the institution to make use of all the biodegradable material along with food left over, which is not consumable. This is processed and gets converted into concentrated natural fertilizer, which is deposited into the vermicompost bins to use as manure for plants and trees within the college campus. The food waste through vermicomposting is converted into organic nutrient rich fertilizer.

Labelling of Wet and Dry Waste

The college has placed separate bins for wet and dry waste at strategic locations. As an annual activity the checking and labelling of separate bins for wet waste and dry waste was carried out by the Eco Club of the institution. Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of St. Joseph's College of Commerce (Autonomous) plays a vital role in maintaining the standard of all the academic activities on campus. The IQAC also helps the institution perform beyond the demands of various academic bodies under the state and central governments. It is involved in setting benchmarks in the field of higher education, by applying numerous time-tested pedagogical approaches which transcend the traditional classroom lectures. The cell also helps in the holistic development of the student community. It focuses primarily on quality enhancement of teaching, learning, evaluation, research, extension and consultancy opportunities.

Given below are some of the important contributions of the IQAC in different capacities:

NAAC Accreditation (IV Cycle)

The institution had applied for the fourth cycle of NAAC accreditation this academic year. The Revised Accreditation framework followed by NAAC provided the institution with an opportunity to strengthen its existing systems and introduce new processes. The NAAC SSR was submitted in January 2020 and the process of Data validation and Verification was also completed in the month of February, 2020. However, the visit of the peer team was delayed due to the pandemic. The Peer team visit took place on the 18th & 19th of February, 2021 and the peer team members were Dr. Pradeep Kumar Yadav, the Ex Pro Vice Chancellor of MJP Rohilkhand University in Bareilly, as the Chairperson; Dr. Kinnarry Thakkar, Professor at the Department of Commerce at the University of Mumbai, as the member co-ordinator; and Dr. Kashmir Singh, the Principal of Mata Guruji College (Autonomous) in Fatehgarh, as the member. After carefully examining the documents and assessing the college, the institution was an 'A++' grade with a CGPA of 3.57 in the fourth cycle of NAAC.

Paramarsh

Paramarsh is the UGC Scheme for mentoring NAAC Accreditation-aspirant institutions to promote quality assurance in Higher Education. Since our college is identified as a mentor institution, several programmes and webinar series were initiated by the IQAC to guide the mentee institutions through NAAC.

On the 2nd of October, 2020, an online meeting with the all the members of the mentee institutions was held, requesting the mentees for their plan of accreditation dates. This meeting helped the Paramarsh team to make a detailed plan of events for the academic year to mentor the Institutions effectively.

Responding to a request for English Training Programme from a Paramarsh mentee institution-Loyola Degree College, Manvi, the institution arranged for two faculty members from the Department of English to conduct three sessions on basic English-speaking and writing skills. The attendees appreciated the sessions and benefitted from this programme.

A three-day Paramarsh Webinar Series was conducted from the 22nd to the 24th of June, 2020. The purpose of this series was to create awareness about the importance of NAAC and its functions in six mentee institutions of the college. In the course of these three days, the college invited a number of experienced education professionals from different institutions to talk on a broad range of important topics like 'Intellectual property in HEIs', 'Teaching & Learning in HEIs', 'Research, Consultancy and Extensions in HEIs', 'Curriculum in HEIs' and 'ICT in Teaching & Learning'.

A national faculty development webinar was conducted on the topic of 'Impact of Research Publications on Quality Assurance in HEIs', on the 21st of August, 2020.

Another national faculty development webinar was conducted on the topic 'Leadership in the new era of covid-19 crisis', on the 28th of August, 2020.

Audits

The IQAC initiated an internal audit to audit the documents maintained by the various departments of the institution, on the 24th of November, 2020. This was in preparation for the upcoming Peer Team visit.

An external Examination audit was also conducted on the 23rd of January, 2021. Dr. Mohan, former COE of SJC, was invited to conduct the audit and it proved fruitful as he provided many useful suggestions to the college.

Support for institutions preparing for NAAC accreditation under the Revised Accreditation Framework

Post the NAAC assessment declaration of A++ for our college, in addition to the mentee institutions, many colleges requested our institution for guidance in their respective NAAC peer team visits. While the college continues to guide the mentee institutions, it also accommodated the requests of other colleges to share the knowledge and experience of our NAAC journey. The details of the same are given below:

- St. Joseph's Evening College team headed by the Director – 19th February 2021
- SFS College, Hebbagodi Electronic City in Bengaluru – 2nd March, 2021
- Representatives from St. Aloysius College of Mangalore – 14th March, 2021
- Montfort College, Bangalore - 27th February, 2021
- St. Joseph's College of Law headed by the Principal and the Director - 15th March, 2021

Participation in Rankings

IQAC submits all the information required, to Public and Private Ranking Agencies every year. The details required for National Institutional Ranking Framework, MRDA Best University Ranking 2021, The WEEK Best University Survey through Hansa Research 2021, Times Higher Education World Ranking 2021 and ARIIA Ranking for Entrepreneurship 2020 were submitted by the IQAC diligently.

Feedback

IQAC is responsible for establishing a structured feedback mechanism that can direct the future course of planning and action for the college. As feedback is the most important tool in improvement of the institution, the IQAC collects feedback from all the important stakeholders- teachers, students, employers, alumni and parents, on an annual basis.

- Feedback from the staff members on the curriculum was initiated by the IQAC, along with the HoDs from the subject teachers meeting and the Pre- BoS meetings. This was useful in revising the courses that required changes.
- The IQAC also initiated the self –appraisal from staff members, during the 3rd week of March, 2021.
- Students feedback on the teaching staff was collected for the year. Teachers' and parents' feedback was also documented during the first week of April this year.
- Faculty evaluation of the online teaching platform was conducted in the month of July in 2020.

- Students' evaluation of the online teaching platform was also conducted in the month of July, 2020.

Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Scheme

Under the UBA scheme, faculty and students of SJCC continued to support the adopted villages by supplying COVID-19 essential kits and COVID- 19 PPEs.

Other Initiatives

- After the announcement of National Education Policy 2020 by the Government of India, the MYGOV portal sought suggestions and feedbacks from academicians across the country. The BJES held discussions with representatives from all the Jesuits Institutions in Bangalore, and sent the draft of key points that were to be discussed, to all these institutions. A detailed discussion and consultation process with all the academic members of the college was conducted on the 20th of November. The IQAC was instrumental in conducting this session.
- The IQAC has played a pivotal role in initiating online classes in the backdrop of the pandemic. Along with a committee formed by the Principal, the IQAC helped in identifying an integrated platform that could help schedule classes, hold online meetings, capture the attendance of students, display the course schedule and structure, provide reading materials, enable easy assessment and guarantee continuous interaction with the students.
- A comprehensive document titled 'Guideline to Online Classes at SJCC' was formulated along with a team, to help students and faculty adopt to the online classes effortlessly.
- The IQAC helped in forming and initiating a team of staff members who could provide sufficient training to all the faculty members (including visiting faculty), to familiarize them with the online platform identified for conducting online classes.
- The IQAC also equipped the SQAC student group to function as a support group to help students who faced technical difficulties while trying to access the online classes. Continuous support was extended to students who reported technical issues.
- Institutional policies regarding the use of MOOC in the curriculum and in the conduction of online classes, were initiated by the IQAC

Outcome Based Education

The Institution follows Outcome Based Education (OBE) model of learning that has created the space for the institution to redesign its curriculum, teaching-learning process and assessment. In order to create an outcome-based curriculum, the institution's specific programme education objectives (PEOs) were first designed. These objectives, led to the development of Programme learning outcomes (PLOs). Programme education objectives and the Programme learning outcomes form the base for the development of the curriculum containing multiple courses, each with specific objectives. Course objectives help in deriving the course learning outcomes (CLOs), the competencies required and indicators of the same. At SJCC, the programme educational objectives, programme learning outcomes, course objectives, course learning outcomes, competencies and its indicators are all consistent with the vision and mission of the institution. This academic year the Graduate Attributes of all the programmes were revised and Course Outcomes were 37 courses.

Inter-disciplinary Approach

The objective of the college is to find ways to extend the horizons of knowledge. As knowledge becomes specialized, it also becomes interdisciplinary in nature due the influence that disciplines have, over each other, in furthering research. The curriculum for all the commerce and business administration courses require students to do core papers in their respective fields of study. Apart from the core papers, students are offered open elective papers from other fields of study, including theatre arts and literature. This allows students to learn from different fields and blend them, to develop an understanding of the world we live in. Some of the core papers are also redesigned as interdisciplinary papers to enrich the understanding of the subjects. The Business Ethics paper is exemplary, as here literature is used to understand ethical concepts and applied in the context of business and commerce.

Practice Orientation

The industry demands skilled professionals who can adapt easily to the dynamic work environment. Classroom teaching equips the students with the necessary conceptual skills. The procedural skills required, especially in the field of commerce, require students to get an exposure to the industry practice. In this regard, the practice orientation for industry is introduced into the curriculum and brought to the students in a phased manner, across the span of their entire programme. In the first and the second academic years, students are taken on industrial visits to familiarize them with the work processes. In the summer vacation after the second year, students are expected to do an internship of six weeks which are evaluated and graded by the college. However, this year due to the pandemic regular internships were replaced with online internships and skill development courses through MOOCs platform. The Masters programme has an internship semester in the second year where students work for an entire semester. They are guided, mentored and monitored by the faculty members. Such a practice orientation grounds the students to the work atmosphere and equips them with the necessary skills.

Student Research Engagement

Research orientation is included in the curriculum for the bachelor and master degrees. The Research Centre of the college, along with the subject teachers, guide and mentor the undergraduate and postgraduate students in research work. Research methodology paper is taught and as part of the curriculum, students are motivated to take up independent research projects. Student research in the form of case study and research papers are compiled, edited and published by the college. Students are encouraged to take up research in the field of commerce and business administration with an orientation to benefit the society at large. Research culture is an integral aspect of our curriculum and dissertations, minor and major research projects accompany the industry-readiness in the students, as part of our holistic approach towards education.

Curriculum Enrichment

Holistic development of students is an important aspect of our institution's education. With programmes such as BBA (Entrepreneurship), B.Com (Professional – International Accounting and Finance), B.Com (BPM- industry integrated), B.Com (Analytics), B.Com (Professional – Strategic Finance) and B.Com (Travel and Tourism), our students have enhanced employability factors. The curriculum is also enriched with courses like Advanced Excel, Tally, SPSS, Financial Modelling, R Programming and SAP, to give them hands- on experience with skills that enable their easy transition into their respective careers.

Professional Certification Programmes

The Professional Certification programmes were enunciated by the institution with a view to providing a holistic development to the student community. These courses are offered to students with a view to broaden and sharpen their niche skills. Interdisciplinary subjects are also offered alongside with the vision of having a comprehensive and balanced approach in terms of overall growth. With that in view, every year, the college proposes a collection of handpicked courses to be offered to the student community keeping in mind the growing industry demand and with the objective of providing additional skills.

Teaching & Learning

Teaching-Learning Process

It is the institution's constant endeavour to enhance and improve the teaching- learning process, by adopting innovative pedagogical methods. Every teacher is encouraged to combine traditional and innovative methods of teaching and learning. Although the teacher's role is central in controlling and directing the activity involved in a pedagogical method, emphasis is laid on the experiences and experiments of the learners too. Subject specific research for students, simulation games, role plays, case study analysis, rural camps, rural exposure programmes, social visits, internship programmes, articleship programmes and industrial visits are some of the many innovative pedagogical methods adopted.

In the backdrop of unprecedented challenges created by the COVID pandemic, education has changed dramatically. There is a distinctive rise in e-learning, where learning takes place in digital platforms. A policy document was developed and ratified through the Academic Council on the introduction of online courses, the methodology of implementation, framework for online classes, guidelines and student engagement in the online platform. An online evaluation of the platform was also conducted. All classes have successfully taken place through the online mode during the academic year 2020-21.

Along with the development of new pedagogic practices to suit the online mode of teaching, previously developed practices like Shared Teaching and Flipped Classroom were adapted to the online mode. An effective teaching-learning strategy has to involve the use of technology in all its forms. Learning Management Systems (LMS) provide a platform to the teachers and students, to integrate various aspects of learning. Previously developed online courses designed by integrating video lectures delivered by our own faculty members, reading materials, daily and weekly tasks, examination and evaluation in a single online platform, were utilized in this academic year. with the aid of Learning Management System.

Online Teaching-Learning during the Pandemic

The covid-19 pandemic brought about enormous changes in the world of education. Universities and colleges had to switch to the online mode of teaching-learning immediately, and developing the ideal online teaching pedagogy that enhanced student learning was a challenge for all educational institutions. The college opted for MS Teams as the platform for the same and adequate number of training sessions were held, to adopt this mode.

The teaching-learning pedagogies adopted by the institution are as follows:

Collaborative Teaching and Learning: Microsoft Teams allows for teachers to create OneNote- a digital class notebook that allows for students to store text, images, handwritten notes, attachments, links, voice, videos and other useful information. Since this notebook is accessible for the specific student and the teacher, the former could monitor the learning of the student effectively. The collaborative space allowed made the learning of practical subjects like Accountancy, Finance and Income Tax easy for students, as the teachers could organise the information and teach online effectively. The teacher could review the work of students individually or conduct Cross Notebook Review, to provide feedback.

Instant Student Engagement: Technology-enabled interactive teaching pedagogy was adopted by teachers to gain an understanding of the students' learning experience and class reactions. The teachers intensively used the Microsoft Teams apps like Polly and Survey to bring instant collaboration with the students during class hours. Using online polls and quick surveys during the class, the subject teacher could engage the students effectively. This also added to the element of research, in the students of the class as they were given specific tasks that required online research.

Online Assignment: Online assignments proved to be the most effective online teaching-learning pedagogy as the teachers employed their creativity in the development of the assignment tasks and the evaluation of the students' performances. Book reviews, news article discussion, case study evaluation, annual report analysis and reflective writings were some of the assignments given by the teachers of practical and theory subjects. The teachers conducted formative assessments online to provide useful feedback to students. They also created elaborative marking rubrics for every assessment, to offer quality feedback. The marking rubrics helped the students understand the teacher's expectations and improve the quality of their assignments.

Online Quizzes: Teachers created online quizzes using the college ERP platform or Microsoft Forms to assess the students' learning outcomes. This was auto-graded and the students were given feedback on their performance in the subjects.

Online Group Discussion: Teachers also actively engaged the students in online discussions. Teachers used this method to teach the students about current business affairs and other subject-related topics of current relevance. This method allows for the teacher to monitor and evaluate the student's performance during the class.

Fully Online Flipped Classes: This approach of teaching enabled the students to freely participate in the class, as they felt encouraged to research about the topic and come prepared to discuss it with the rest of the class. Teachers also conducted individual and group-based activities on the given topic and evaluated the students' understanding and comprehensive style. This was considered one of the most effective teaching-learning pedagogy online.

Online Digital Whiteboard: Online digital whiteboards were used by teachers to collaborate and provide a clear visual for students to learn through. Microsoft Whiteboard is a powerful free-form digital canvas and it was used by the teachers to write, draw and share the digital canvas with the students. Teachers of practical and theory subjects used this mode extensively. Students conducted SWOT analysis, product mapping and financial plans using this mode, thus allowing for the teacher to provide feedback instantly.

The respective course instructor selected the most feasible assessment method. These formative assessment methods have been designed with a view to motivate the students to explore the practical dimensions of the topics.

A detailed guideline regarding the Online Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) patterns was shared with the faculty members.

The recommended Internal Assessment patterns are mentioned below:

Model Online Assignment No – I

Assignment Type	Title of the assignment Read and Respond
Nature	Nearly mirrors face to face lecture. The teacher provides video lecture or articles and assigns questions to answer.
Advantage	The students have sufficient time to watch and read the material and prepare and submit their response.
Limitations	The teachers needs to evaluate and remark all the responses, which may be usually time consuming.
Suggested frequency	Once in a month.
Suggested usage	Through online mode.

Note: The same model can be reworked for practical subjects like Accounts and Income Tax. The instructor may include three different worked out problems that are either incomplete or with incorrect interpretations. The students will have to make the required changes, explain the concept and provide sensible interpretations.

Model Online Assignment No – II

Assignment Type	Title of the assignment Meta study (RESEARCH ON RESEARCH)
Nature	The teacher provides many research articles by various scholars on a particular theme in the subject. The student analyses all the articles, then synthesizes all the results using various tools that they have learnt and achieves a new result on his/her own.

Advantage	Specially designed for fast learners and for scholars who are interested in gaining extra knowledge beyond the prescribed syllabus.
Limitations	Not meant for the entire class.
Suggested frequency	Once in a semester.
Suggested usage	Online mode and can take assistance from the department of research or statistics etc for more inputs.

Model Online Assignment No – III

Assignment Type	Title of the assignment
	Term paper
Nature	Again research oriented assignment designed for students who have caliber for research based work.
Advantage	This is a very good assignment to inculcate scientific temper and orientation towards latest research in the scholars.
Limitations	Not for the entire class.
Suggested frequency	Once in a semester
Suggested usage	Online mode.

Model Online Assignment No – IV

Assignment Type	Title of the assignment
	Wikis
Nature	It is a group assignment which involves the entire group to comment or edit a shared document (NOT NECESSARILY RESEARCH RELATED) on the theme and develop a task, like list of inclusions or deletions, tag questions that will probe to analyze and use HOTS etc, document their own thoughts and suggestions and come to a common platform to deliberate on the same (apply their OBE skills).

Advantage	It's a group assignment
Limitations	Time consuming
Suggested frequency	Preferably once in a fortnight
Suggested usage	Online mode.

Model Online Assignment No – V

Assignment Type	Title of the assignment
	Blogs and Journals
Nature	Specially designed for the languages.
Advantage	Assignments that allows students to express freely, creatively, artistically on a given topic/theme using ICT through the language.
Limitations	Technical knowledge required (the teachers can collectively construct one blog/journal for one class and the entire class can contribute also towards it) the same can be utilized for College in house e-journal
Suggested frequency	Once in a semester
Suggested usage	Online mode.

Model Online Assignment No – VI

Assignment Type	Title of the assignment Case study
Nature	Well-constructed cases will enable students to utilize all their skills to analyze problems, to do research and present a feasible solution to the problem.
Advantage	Any student with a limited knowledge and interest in the course can take up the case study assignment.
Limitations	The teachers needs to evaluate all the students on their personal interpretations to the solution.
Suggested frequency	Once in a month, this will actually train them for their final exams too
Suggested usage	Online mode.

Model Online Assignment No – VII

Assignment Type	Title of the assignment Self-paced adaptive assignment
Nature	Each student with the assistance of the teacher actually focus on a particular module, takes in a different assignment may be a quiz or a MCQ test or a descriptive test based on his/her inclination to cover the basic important concepts in the course.
Advantage	Specially for slow learners (usually in a small pocket size portion).
Limitations	The teacher needs to customize for each and every one, hand hold everybody till they finish.
Suggested frequency	Once in a fortnight at least.
Suggested usage	Online mode.

Model Online Assignment No – VIII

Assignment Type	Title of the assignment Review (Specially for Languages)
Nature	It is an evaluation of an article or a book.
Advantage	Students can select their own genre.
Limitations	The teacher needs to evaluate each and every article, based on different interest/genre/theme which may be time consuming as well as tedious. The teacher needs to remark and comment also.
Suggested frequency	Once in a month.
Suggested usage	Online mode.

Model Online Assignment No – IX

Assessment Type	Quizzes/ Objective Tests/ Recognition Type (Such as MCQ, True or False, Matching, Classifying) / Recall Type- Filling Blanks, One Word / Phrase Answers
Nature	Structured tests, short duration

Advantage	Can be very reliable, excellent validity as greater syllabus coverage can show how fast student can think, can be carried out quickly, requires less effort in correction, can be used to test interpretation and decision skills.
Limitations	Students may be guessing, takes skills and time, to design good questions-especially questions to test high level learning outcomes, needs careful planning to ensure the answers choices are clear.
Suggested Frequency	4 per semester including 1 Makeup & 1 Surprise Quiz
Suggested Usage	Teachers can be trained in construction, advantages, disadvantages and precautions while preparing different types of objective items, Balance between recognition and recall types go beyond factual information to HOT Skills.

5. Midterm Retest:

Midterm retest for the absentees of even semester was conducted in the second week of August 2020 through the college ERP.

A notification regarding the midterm retest along with the timetable was sent to the students.

6. Supplementary Online Examination of the pending previous even semester

The pending even semester supplementary online examination was conducted through MS Teams. The supplementary examinations were conducted from 9th September to 21st September, 2020. The Examination Department conducted mock tests for the candidates registered for the supplementary examination with a view to acquaint the candidates with the online examination method.

7. Offline End Semester Examinations

The pending offline examinations for UG 2017 batch and PG 2018 batch for students who have opted for the same were held from 8th October 2020 to 19th October 2020 in the college campus following the strict covid protocol and security measures.

Examination Reforms - 2020-21

a. Online Board of Examiners (BOE) Meet

In continuation to the online mode of teaching and conduct of exams during pandemic, the Board of Examiners meeting was also conducted through digital mode. The meeting was meticulously conducted where question papers were scrutinized and vetted digitally.

Impact: The positive impact of this process was a drastic cutdown in usage of papers in printing hard copies.

b. CIA AUDIT COMMITTEE:

A Committee comprising of senior members was set up to monitor and audit the continuous internal assessments of all the programmes both UG & PG. The purpose of the committee was to audit the completion of CIA assessments of all courses on time; to find out the vividness, vivacity and unique methods adopted in conduct of assessment during the semester; marking rubrics adopted; to check any glaring discrepancies in the marks entry and to provide a comprehensive report to the COE department for further course of action.

Impact: The positive impact was publication of the result comprising complete CIA component marks very quickly and in a most transparent manner and before the onset of end semester exams and settle all grievances of the students regarding the CIA even before the start of end semester exams.

c. ONLINE CIA:

During COVID-19 pandemic, the examination department proposed various online CIA Assessments so that teachers can choose any of these according to their course curriculum. A detailed description is attached.

Impact: To assess the LOTS and HOTS of the OBE assessment, these online CIA activities were adopted by teachers.

- d. END SEMESTER QUESTION PAPER AUDIT: The examination department conducts the audit of the ESE question papers that were administered during the semester end examination by external subject experts. The experts, after thorough scrutiny, will give their opinions on the subject content, difficulty level, time adequacy etc.

Impact: The positive impact of this audit is that the question paper setters will have an idea how was the standard of the question paper and what were the lacuna to be rectified. This practice is one of the uniqueness of the examination department.

Research Culture at SJCC

Research Culture at SJCC

Research is an integral component of the academic excellence at SJCC. The college endorses research in three significant manners: Individualistic Research - whereby faculty members and students pursue research individually/jointly; Departmental Research - whereby respective departments motivate students to undertake research on contemporary issues in the fields of Commerce, Management and Humanities; Seed Money Project - whereby faculty members conduct research on apostolic preferences to support social causes.

Department research: The B. Com, BBA and PG departments give great importance to research. These departments have exclusive associations to boost the research culture among students. Mainframe Research Forum is an initiative of B. Com Department to imbibe in the students the ability to conduct and conclude from their various researches, as well as guide them throughout the entire process, by way of guest lectures, workshops and training programmes in the fields of computer software and formatting.

The Quest club of BBA department promotes logical reasoning and critical-thinking amongst students. The club organized programmes 'Reconnoitre' and 'Nirmana' for the students of BBA department. This enriches the knowledge of students in the field of research.

The PG department organized a week-long training programme to give an overview to the students preparing their dissertation thesis. The department organized a hands-on training programme for SPSS learning and literature review-writing for the students. Another day-long session was organized for students to use e-resources and library databases to conduct research.

Individual/joint research: SJCC faculty members published/presented their research outcome at various platforms of national and international repute. In this academic year, the faculty members participated in 157 seminars/conferences/FDPs, published 24 research articles, authored 5 books. Four competent projects proposals funded by ICSSR, are in full swing to submit their findings to the agency. The faculty members were part of review committee and advisory committee of reputed conferences and journals, respectively. They shared their research expertise as conveners, resource persons, panelists at conferences and seminars in various institutions across the country.

Institutional support: The college strives to maintain a strong research environment by funding various FDPs, workshops and training programmes. The Research Center coordinates all PhD-related activities of Bangalore University at SJCC. Currently, 4 faculty members have started working on their research projects. The college administers the funds received from various government institution like UGC and ICSSR for minor and major research projects. The college management and BJES provide seed money to relevant research proposals in the field of Social Science.

Research Center

St. Joseph's College of Commerce (Autonomous) has been recognized as a Research Center by the Bangalore University in the year 2010. The Centre abides by the Research Policy of the institutes to maintain research environment among students and faculty members. The plagiarism and malpractice policy allows for the high standards of ethical research. The BJES seed money policy helps the Centre in mobilizing the research fund granted by the institution.

The following are the members of Research Advisory Committee:

Activities and Achievements of the Research Centre in the Academic Year 2020-21

The Research Centre has applied for the second renewal of its status to Bangalore Central University. In this process, an expert Committee of five members visited the SJCC campus on Sept 7, 2020 for the Renewal of the Recognition of the Research Centre. A brief presentation on the details of existing PhD guides, faculty members eligible for PhD guide-ship, faculty publications, funded projects, seminars and conferences organized, research infrastructure, library and ICT related information, was made. This was followed by a campus visit of the experts. The committee appreciated the research initiatives at SJCC, especially the ones related to social projects undertaken by the institution's faculty members.

I. Programs Organized by the Research Centre

A. National level Experiential Training Program

The SJCC Research Centre provides guidance to students and faculty members for the enhancement of their research skills. The Centre organized a National-level experiential workshop on 'Research Methodology' from 9th to 15th December, 2020. The workshop witnessed participants from 7 states of the country. Ten resource persons from reputed institutes like IIPM Rajasthan, GBU Delhi, MDI Gurgaon, NIT Trichy and St. Joseph's College Trichy, delivered talks. Dr. Deepika Joshi and Dr. Sridhar LS were the conveners of the programme.

B. Capacity Building Program

a. Training programme on EBSCO database:

A webinar on 'Training and demonstration of EBSCO database' was organized by the SJCC Research Centre, in association with Library and Information Centre of SJCC on September 12th, 2020. Mr. Sreenivas, the Training manager from EBSCO was the resource person. The objective of the programme was to familiarize the scholars with various databases of EBSCO and easy ways to explore them for the purpose of research.

b. PhD synopsis presentation

In its mandate of PhD thesis submission to Bangalore University, the Research Centre organizes a review presentation of the research work done by PhD scholar. The committee was constituted by the Director of the Research Centre, in consultation with the PhD guides. The committee appreciated the work of the scholars and gave them the necessary suggestions.

C. Research program for the PG and UG department

a. Experiential training programme on Research methodology:

The Research Centre, in collaboration with the PG Department, organized a six-days experiential training programme for the M. Com final year students from August 24th -25th, 2020. The objective of this programme was to enhance the research-related skills of the PG students and prepare them to undertake the dissertation work with adequate knowledge and confidence. Seven sessions on various topics like research design, questionnaire construction, hypothesis testing, ethics in research, plagiarism policy of SJCC and UGC and writing the dissertation thesis and research articles, were covered during this programme. Five faculty members from SJCC shared their expertise on questionnaire design, sampling, data analysis technique, etc., with the students.

b. Workshop on Basic of Research Methodology for UG students

A two-days workshop from 8th – 9th Oct, 2020 was organized for the B. Com and BBA department students. The students of Quest club and Mainframe Research Forum participated in the workshop, and were trained on the basics of research, problem identification, hypothesis construction, questionnaire development, data collection and given an overview of various data analysis techniques.

II. Guidance to the Departments

The Centre extends guidance to the Under-Graduate and Post-Graduate departments in organizing conferences, workshops and seminars. It provided support by reviewing the papers, compiling compendiums and meeting the publication ethics via plagiarism checks.

III. Expert Review Committee Meeting – BJES Seed Money Projects

The Centre also extended support by organizing Expert Review Committee meetings to scrutinize the proposals submitted by faculty members under BJES Seed Money projects. Subject expert Rev. Dr. Joseph Lobo from St. Joseph's Research Centre was the external reviewer and Dr. Mohan Philip, Associate Professor, and Dr. Rajajeba Singh, Assistant Professor, performed the internal review on the 18th of March 18, 2021.

IV. SJCC Management Research Review Peer Review Journal (Print ISSN: 2249-4359)

Two volumes of the 'SJCC Management Research Review', a flagship bi-annual journal was published by the Research Center in the months of June and December.

V. Database advancement and flexibility to use, during COVID 19 pandemic

The Research Centre advanced the existing searchable collection of information, by procuring the EBSCO and ProWess databases. During the national lockdown, the center ensured that faculty members, research scholars and students were provided with off-campus facilities to use the digital mode and access theses, dissertations, key journals, books, and research reports from around the world.

VI. PhD scholar Interface Meeting:

The Research Centre of SJCC organized a PhD Scholar Interface Meeting for its registered scholars in the second week of every month. The objective of meeting was to have research work presentation by any one of the scholars, followed by intense discussion on the research work. The scholars are also updated with the planned activities for next month from the Research Centre. Lastly, research related queries, if any, are addressed here. For this, scholars express their interest to present his/her research work, on a voluntary basis. Ten such PhD scholar meetings were organized from June 2020 to March 2021.

Mentorship

Mentoring is most often defined as a professional relationship in which a mentor assists a student in developing specific skills and knowledge that will enhance their strengths, professional and personal growth for the future. A mentor also provides feedback and guidance for the overall development of the mentee.

Mentoring is useful, during their three-year journey of under-graduation, since students are navigating through college life, social life, career paths and working towards forming a more independent life. These years will contain some of their most memorable moments.

An efficient mentoring system has shown to be quite beneficial to the students' overall performance. It works as a support system for them and provides comfort as they know that there is someone they can turn to if they face any trouble, be it academic, co-curricular or personal.

Here at St. Joseph's College of Commerce, every first-year class is assigned two mentors (about 40 students to each mentor). The mentors take time to meet each student and help them with their concerns. Through this, mentors are able to assess the student's condition on a more personal level and help or guide them where necessary.

Mentors keep an 'Open hour' every week for meeting the students. They keep a track of academic performance, leave records and meet with parents when required. In addition, they educate the students about the college rules and facilities that they can avail. In this academic year the class mentors utilized the online platforms for meeting and tracking student performance.

A student file is maintained by the mentors, consisting of the name and details of the students and is kept up-to-date. This file is passed on to the teachers that handle the class in the following years.

St Joseph's College of Commerce, stresses on the holistic and integrated development of the students, by providing them with appropriate guidance and assistance, to facilitate their fluent transition from school to college life. The goal of the institution is to help students become the best version of them. The counselling centre of the College aims at providing the students with emotional, mental and spiritual support, in addition to academics. There are four full time counsellors.

IGNATIAN WEEK

The college celebrated the Feast of St. Ignatius of Loyola by conducting a number of competitions all through the Ignatian Week, from the 26th of July to the 2nd of August 2020. The enthusiasm, participation and overall excitement for the week, in students, is testimony to the popularity of the patron saint even today. The Ignatian week consisted of several online events like Poster Making (digital and handmade), caption writing, creative writing, crossword puzzle and vlog creation. Though these events were conducted online through Microsoft teams platform, it witnessed active participation from the students of all classes. Winners of these events were awarded with cash prizes. The Ignatian Week was also very informative for the students, as all the events were centred around the life and teachings of St. Ignatius. - To show the way to God through the Spiritual Exercises and discernment;
- To walk with the poor, the outcasts of the world, those whose dignity has been violated, in a mission of reconciliation and justice;
- To accompany young people in the creation of a hope-filled future;
- To collaborate in the care of our Common Home

To create awareness and deepen the understanding of these four UAPs among the students of SJCC, a guest lecture on 'Universal Apostolic Preferences: Driving A Common Passion' was conducted.
